Contributions by check or credit card are limited to $550 for the primary election and $550 for the general election. Contributions from corporations, labor unions, or other sources prohibited by federal or Colorado state law cannot be accepted. Contributions are not tax deductible. Cash contributions are limited to $100. Generally, the Hickenlooper for Colorado Campaign is permitted to accept contributions from Limited Liability Companies (LLCs). Colorado campaign finance law prohibits Colorado lobbyists and their principals from making, soliciting, or promising to make or solicit, campaign contributions to the Governor or a candidate for Governor when the Colorado General Assembly is in session or when legislation is pending before the Governor for approval or disapproval. If you have any question concerning this provision or whether the Hickenlooper Campaign will accept your contribution during the legislative session, please seek legal counsel or contact the Hickenlooper campaign with questions.
