Testimonials

After years of working to establish a Safe House in Loveland, Alternatives to Violence hired Leah and JD Consulting. Leah patiently and energetically helped organize, launch and execute a capital campaign within months. Alternatives to Violence, victims of domestic violence and the Loveland community will significantly benefit from Leah's expertise and passion for years to come. Leah's unique skill set and personality was the right fit, at the right time for our organization.

Joey Parsons- Board Member, Alternatives to Violence (ATV)

“Leah's strong roots in Loveland and her knowledge of the Northern Colorado communities truly gives her a one-up in finding the sweet spot on where to meet your customers' needs and wants. Her passion, the rock solid relationships she has developed and her quality work are why we chose JD Consulting.”

-Lindsey Bashline, Loveland Water and Power

“Our board turned to Leah and JD Consulting to help us close out our capital campaign. Leah has pushed our organization in very positive ways and helped maintain our focus and energy. We have seen a marked difference in the effectiveness of our approach to major donors. I would highly recommend JD Consulting to other non-profit organizations looking to bolster their fundraising efforts!”

-Jonas McKinley, Board President, SAVA Center

“Leah Johnson and JD Consulting bring a variety of skills, vision, and strategy to help integrate marketing and community outreach into your organization’s everyday needs to ensure you successfully reach your goals of marketing and outreach. Her passion for the success of her clients is clear as she goes above and beyond to ensure positive results. ”

- Bryan Jones, Owner, Henry’s Pub and Sports Station Bar and Grill

“Leah’s level of expertise provided us with a platform to establish a target donor market which had been left in an undeveloped state. I most appreciate the extraordinary care given and dedication to our project and staff.”
